

Walls Fall Down

Jordan Dillon | Felicity Dillon | Andrew Bushway | Vikki Cook | Anna Stanley

Verse 1

Without Christ we were lost and dead
Void of purpose and love
Without Christ all our finest work
Left us separate from God

Pre-Chorus

There was a hostile wall set between us
Which Christ tore down in His death
Now we can tread across it in freedom
It's broken down by His mercy and grace

Chorus

Because of Jesus
There's nothing left to separate us now
All our hate and sin defeated
We are one in Christ now
Let love rise as the walls fall down

Verse 2

In Christ now we are welcomed in
Loved as daughters and sons
In Christ now we are one new race
Bound in Jesus' name

Bridge

There is no limit to the power of Your love
There is no darkness that Your light can't overcome
Every nation tribe and tongue
We are one
Let love rise as the walls fall down
